

Every Word I Believe

每一字我都確信

Johnson Oatman

William J. Kirkpatrick

1. If you ask me why I'm hap - py as I
 2. We are not al - lowed to wan - der thro' this
 3. He in - forms us for our com - fort that thro' 4. He has told us of a cit - y where the jour - ney down life's road, Why it is I do not world with - out a guide, For, to keep our feet from life He'll be our friend, That if we will on - ly streets are paved with gold, Where the faith - ful shall be car - ry on the way a heav - y load. 'Tis be - stray - ing, His own Word has been ap - plied, And we trust Him, He'll go with us to the end. That His gath - ered and their Sav - iour's face be - hold, He has cause my Sav - iour tells me that my bur - den He'll read here that the sen - tence of a sin - ner He'll Spir - it will be with us while we do not slight prom - ised at its por - tals that our souls He will re - ceive. And I be - lieve it, eve - ry re - prieve. And I be - lieve it, eve - ry nor grieve. And I be - lieve it, eve - ry re - ceive. And I be - lieve it, eve - ry

Refrain

word I be-lieve.
 word I be-lieve. I be - lieve it, eve - ry word I be-lieve.
 word I be-lieve.

word I be-lieve. I re-ceive it, eve-ry word I re-ceive;

Je - sus tells me my wants He will re - lieve, And I be - lieve it, eve - ry word I be-lieve.