

Samuel Lamb

Samuel Lamb

1. Man's na - ture is full of pride, Soft
 2. With small suc - cess in God's work, One
 3. So hap - py when be - ing praised, One's
 4. Re - proach - es come to the weak: Right - out - side comes from pre - tence. How wants to steal God's glo - ry. Grace praise one - self in de - ceit. God's eous - ness but no pit - y! Lift - ma - ny true hum - ble Chris - tians can from God be - comes one's pride, Yet re - sist the proud be - liev - ers, But ing self de - spis - ing oth - ers, Oth -

Refrain

be found a - mong thou - sands? to know one's emp - ti - ness! Hum - ble your - self be - give grace to the hum - ble!
 ers can nev - er be strong!

fore God, He will ex - alt you. Je - sus said, "I am meek and low - ly in my heart. Take my yoke up - on you, And learn of my ex - am - ple."

5. Grace comes to humility, Yet pride does not want to die!
Very strong but not humble, One cannot stand any trial! (Refrain)
6. "Pride comes before destruction, A haughty spirit before a fall.
Before destruction is pride; Before honour is humble." (Refrain)
7. Mangle failures bring a return, Mouth on ground to praise the Lord.
Never dare to be proud anymore, God's chastisement brings humble. (Refrain)