Samuel Lamb

1. Da - vid re - spect - ed ho - ly liv - ing,
 2. Pe - ter thought that he was the strong - est,
 3. Paul's hu - mil - i - ty grew and grew,

But sinned e'en more than a com - mon soul.
 back-tracked just in front of a small maid.
 "I am the least of the a - pos - tles."

Bod - y cov - ered with wounds then re - pent. A
 He dared not boast af - ter Pen - te - cost. A
 "I am less than the least of all saints." "But sin - ner e - ven be - fore his birth.

 pow - er - ful wit - ness be - fore God.
 I was the chief a - mong sin - ners."

Refrain

O - pen eyes, let the light come and shine!

Ask for Rev - e - la - tion spir - it,

to light up our spir - it - ual eyes. More know - ledge of Je - sus is the key.

4. Others have pride but I do not sin.
 God's discipline is right on the spot.
 Completely wounded yet knows no pity.
 Wound after wound before knowing self. (Refrain)
