

John E. Su

John E. Su

1. All my weak - ness - es Je - sus bears, All my
 2. All my sor - rows the Sav - iour knows, All my 3. On life's path my dear Sav - iour guides, Led by heart-aches He gent - ly heals, When in sick - ness, my pain He trou - bles He un - der - stands, Through each cri - sis, He with me Him, I press on my way, In His love all my hope con - shares, And with joy my spir - it fills, All my goes, Mak - ing strong my heart and hands. In my fides, In this world let come what may. Dare I wan - der - ings He does see, And my sad - ness He lifts my load, Makes my let this vain self be shown? Shall I tears in His bot - tle weigh! Who but fret - tings and doubts to cease, Who but not His great grace re - pay? And live

He could thus ev - er love me: There - fore what can I do but He could thus ev - er love me: In my heart giv - ing per - fect dai - ly for Je - sus on - ly, Win - ing souls to the nar - row

Refrain

say. peace? My Lord's love has no meas - ure, As way.

hills and stars for - ev - er, Though earth's af - fect - ions wa - ver, Je - sus' love will be my stay.