

Calvin Chao

John E. Su

1. If the dear Lord were a rose, I would
 2. If the dear Lord were a poem, I would
 3. If I were the ic - y snow, He would 4. If I were a bar - ren land, He would be the leaf - let green, Then our heart would be en - be the me - lo - dy, Sing - ing of Sal - va - tion be the win - ter sun, Ra - diant love He sheds on be the time - ly rain, He'll pour bless - ings on His twained, As strong as the ties un - seen, Come what sweet, Prais - ing Him in ma - jor key, Then my me, Melt - ed my cold heart is won, Then a field, He will quench the thirst - ing pain, Then the may with storm un - kind, would I on His bo - som heart with His would beat, joined as one in har - mo - liv - ing stream I'd be, to the crys - tal sea I'd in - crease I shall yield, Sow - ing was not all in lean, If the dear Lord were a rose, I would ny, If the dear Lord were a poem, I would run, If I were the ic - y snow, He would vain, If I were a bar - ren land, He would be the leaf - let green.

be the me - lo - dy.
be the win - ter sun.
be the time - ly rain.