

40 Day and night do I think on Thy love

Original by W. W. Simpson Trans. fr. Chinese

J. A. Butterfield

1. Day and night do I think of thy love, O Lord, Its
2. Like a sa - vor - y feast is Thy love, O Lord, My 3. Day and night do I long for Thy home, O Lord, That height and its depth—O how great! Pour - ing down like a great wa - ter - whole be - ing to sat - is - fy. How I thank thee for tak - ing my Thou art pre - par - ing for me. O What joy to walk on streets of fall, O Lord, Thy love doth my be - ing e - late. Thou didst place, O Lord, To en - dure the cross and to die. Thou hast gold, O Lord, No more pain and tears will I see, To a -

Refrain All my come down from heav'n for love's sake, O Lord, For res - cued me from sin and death, O Lord, Thy bide in Thy grace and Thy love, O Lord, What love is poured out at Thy feet, O Lord, None ask - ing Thy glo - ry and Thy throne. Thou wast blood wash - ed my heart white as snow. Thou hast bless - ing di - vine be - yond com - pare! For Thy can sat - is - fy my heart so well, Most de - born Son of Man un - der law, O Lord, With - sent Thy Spir - it to help me, O Lord, That love is the same to the end, O Lord, Thy light - ful and pre - cious are Thou, O Lord. I out an - y wealth called Thine own.

 I might please Thee here be - low. glo - ry is seen eve - ry - where.

love in thy bos - om to dwell.