

Art thou lonely?

Anonymous

Philip P. Bliss

1. Are you lone - ly? Real - ly lone - ly? Je - sus
 2. Are you wea - ry? Real - ly wea - ry? Je - sus
 3. Are you need - y? Tru - ly need - y? Je - sus 4. Are you bur - dened? Real - ly bur - dened? Je - sus' was more lone - ly still, Came as man to earth from was more worn than you. As He bore the cross to poor - er was than you. Nests for birds and holes for load was great - er yet. He can car - ry all our heav - en, Bore dis - grace and treat - ment ill. He was Cal - v'ry Cru - el tor - ture He en - dured. Wea - ry, fox - es, On - ly He ran to and fro. Place to sor - rows, Com - fort us when griefs be - set. He Him - lone - ly in the cit - y, More a - lone on Cal - v'ry's sleep - less in the gar - den, Bend - ing 'neath sin's crush - ing place He walked a life - time, Preach - ing truth to heed - less self bore heav - y bur - dens, Wore a thorn crown, suf - fred hill. Not one soul with Him to load, As He kneeled and prayed in men; As a babe born in a pain. On the cross He hung in suf - fer, O what grief His heart did fill. an - guish, Sweat did fall like drops of blood.

 sta - ble, Bur - ied in a stran - ger's tomb.
 an - guish, Died that we might heav - en gain.