

Ida L. Reed

George C. Stebbins

1. Bless - ed is he that is trust - ing the Lord, For the
 2. Bless - ed is he that is trust - ing the Lord, Who doth
 3. Bless - ed is he whom the Fa - ther will aid, And the 4. Bless - ed is he who will keep in the way that will help that he dai - ly needs; He shall in - her - it the fol - low the heav'n - ly way; Keep - ing with pa - tience and Sav - iour will e'er be - friend. He shall not fear, and shall up - ward and on - ward lead; Walk - ing by faith in His prom - ised re - ward, If he fol - low where Je - sus hope in the path, All his steps shall be guarded each not be dis - mayed, For the Lord will his soul de - love eve - ry day, Who sup - pli - eth his dai - ly

Refrain

leads.
 day.
 fend.
 need.

Trust in the Lord with all thy heart, And in all thy ways ac-knowl-edge Him, And He shall di-rect thy paths. All thy ways ac-knowl-edge

Him, And He shall di-rect thy paths.