

Margaret E. Barber

James Langran

1. Deep down in - to the depths of this Thy name,
 2. Thou art e - nough, how - ev - er great the trial,
 3. Thou art my God— the All Suf - fi - cient One,
 4. For me Thy trust - ing one, my God I dare

My God, I sink and dwell in calm de - light; Thou art e - Thou art e - nough, how - ev - er lone the scene; With Thee a - Thou canst cre - ate for me what-e'er I lack; Thy might-y Once more to fly my - self up - on Thy breast, And there a - nough how - ev - er long the day, Thou art e - lone, there's ful - ness of Thy joy, With Thee a - Hand has strewn the home - ward track With mir - a - dore Thy ways in faith's deep rest, And there a - nough how - ev - er dark the night.

 lone, there's sing - ing of Thy song.
 cles of love and ten - der care.
 dore Thy ways in faith's quiet rest.