

Can you be obedient?

Margaret E. Barber

William H. Monk

1. Can you be o - be - dient, To the Lord of all,
 2. Can you be o - be - dient, To the Lord you serve,
 3. Can you trust your Lead - er when He bids you go
 4. Can you? Then be - lov - ed, God just waits for you;

Tho' the earth should tot - ter, Tho' the heav'ns should Nev - er e - ven flinch, friend, Nev - er e - ven Right in - to a bat - tle with a might - y Lis - ten for His or - ders, Glad His will to fall? Face e'en a dis - as - ter, With a faith - filled swerve; Tho' your next step on - ward seems to lead to foe? Can you step up brisk - ly and with joy o - do; Then when sol - diers mus - ter, At the set of heart, Know - ing naught can harm him death? Can you then o - bey Him bey? Can you fight the bat - tle, sun, And your name is men - tioned

Who with God will start?
with - out bat - ed breath?
till the end of day?
Christ will say, "Well done."

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The treble staff contains a melody of quarter notes: G4, A4, Bb4, C5, and a whole note G4. The bass staff contains a bass line of quarter notes: G2, A2, Bb2, C3, and a whole note G2. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: "Who with God will start? with - out bat - ed breath? till the end of day? Christ will say, 'Well done.'"
