

263 Many Crown the Saviour's Kingdom

Trans. fr. Chinese

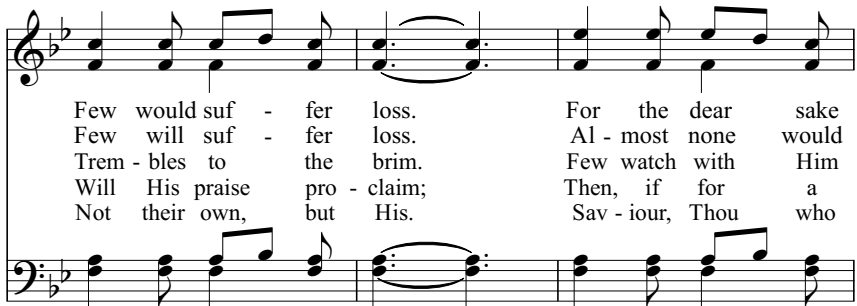

J.H. Burke

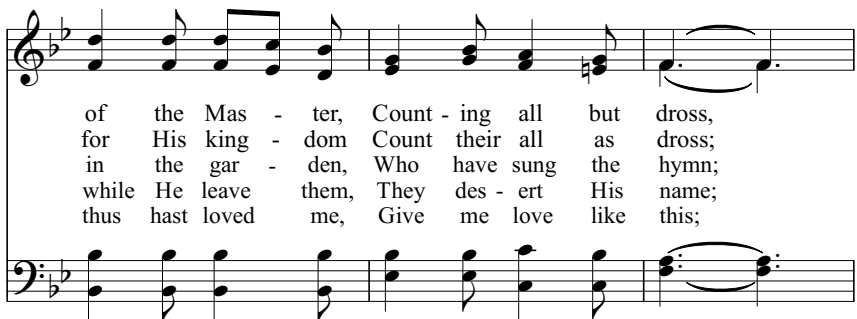

1. Man - y crowd the Sav - iour's king - dom, Few re - ceive His
2. Man - y long to share His glo - ry, Few will bear His
3. Man - y sit at Je - sus' ta - ble, Few will fast with 4. Man - y will con - fess His wis - dom, Few em - brace His 5. But the souls who love Him tru - ly, Let woe come or cross; Man - y seek His prize and hon - our, shame; Man - y long to share His pow - er, Him, When the sor - row cup of an - guish shame. Man - y, should He smile up - on them, bliss, These will count their dear - est hearts' blood

Few would suf - fer loss. For the dear sake Few will suf - fer loss. Al - most none would Trem - bles to the brim. Few watch with Him Will His praise pro - claim; Then, if for a Not their own, but His. Sav - iour, Thou who of the Mas - ter, Count - ing all but dross, for His king - dom Count their all as dross;

in the gar - den, Who have sung the hymn;
while He leave them, They des - ert His name;
thus hast loved me, Give me love like this;

For the dear sake of the Mas - ter,
 Al - most none would for His king - dom Few watch with Him in the gar - den, Then, if for a while He leave them,
 Sav - iour, Thou who thus hast loved me,

Count - ing all but dross.
 Count their all as dross.
 Who have sung the hymn.
 They des - ert His name.
 Give me love like this.