

Margaret E. Barber

William B. Bradbury

1. "No!" to the will of the de - vil, "Yes!" to the will of the
 2. "No!" to the will of the de - vil, "Yes!" to the will of the
 3. "No!" to the will of the de - vil, "Yes!" to the will of the Lord, So Lord Thy pur - pose shall tri - umph, Lord, This be my at - ti - tude al - ways,

 Lord, O - ver the moun - tains so rug - ged,

Thro' Thine om - nip - o - tent Word. With Thine au - thor - i - ty Sav - iour, pro - tec - tion af - ford, Lest, as I move at Thy O - ver the seas at Thy Word, Naught shall de - ter or mo - clothe me, Now, as I stand in Thy will, With Thine bid - ding Sa - tan should close up the way. Stand with lest me, If, bless - ed Lord, Thou wilt be Sav - iour, own Spir - it em - pow'r me, All Thine me, bless - ed Lord Je - sus, As I De - fend - er and keep - er As I own plan to ful - fill Thy pre - cepts o - bey.

 go on - ward with Thee.