

DeWitt C. Huntington

Tullius C. O'Kane

1. O think of the home o - ver there, By the
 2. O think of the friends o - ver there, Who be -
 3. My Sav - iour is now o - ver there, There my side of the riv - er of light, Where the fore us the jour - ney have trod, Of the kin - dred and friends are at rest, Then a - saints, all im - mor - tal and fair, Are songs that they breathe on the air, In their way from my sor - row and care, Let me robed in their gar - ments of light.

 home in the pal - ace of God.
 fly to the land of the blest.

Refrain

O - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      O
 O - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      O O - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      My think of the home o - ver there,                      O - ver think of the friends o - ver there,                      O - ver Sav - iour is now o - ver there,                      O - ver

there,                      o - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      O
 there,                      o - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      O there,                      o - ver there,                      o - ver there,                      My think of the home o - ver there.

 think of the friends o - ver there.
 Sav - iour is now o - ver there.